Fund Raising Ideas

Idea #1 - Mexican Cirios

Mexican Cirios are candles that are imported from Mexico. They are very popular with Spanish speaking people. They are lit for special occasions, such as baptisms, weddings, anniversaries, funerals, and birthdays. In many Catholic churches, there is a special blessing of the candles. Prices on these candles start at $10. The church gets 30% or more of the sales amount. Unsold candles are returned to us. Miracle on Main Street can arrange to have someone sell them at your church or you can sell them yourself.

Idea #2 - Rosary and Scapular Display

If you have parishioners coming into your office or you want to set up a small table after mass, this is a good fund raising idea. The rosaries and scapulars are available at different price ranges and will come in a display easily viewed. Individual rosaries and scapulars are packaged and ready to be sold. Pay for those that you sell. 20% of the sales price is kept by the church. No inventory cost.

Idea #3 - Specialized Displays

Your church office may get parishioners coming in for funerals, weddings, or baptisms. Miracle on Main Street can provide you with a customized assortment of merchandise applicable to each occasion. The church gets 20% of the sales price. No inventory cost and returnable merchandise are two benefits of this type of continuous fund raising. Parishioners are happy to buy from you to help the church and because some items can be hard to find. For baptisms, Miracle on Main Street can provide white baptism outfits, baptism candle sets, and baptism jewelry. For weddings, family Bibles, unity candles, arras, and lassos are hard to find items that your parishioners will appreciate. For funerals, guest books, funeral crucifixes, and pall bearer items are good sellers. Contact us and we can make additional suggestions.
